CITADEL COMMUNICATIONS

Mark Myre from Livingston County Broadcasters introduced Red Pitcher, who is the general manager of the Citadel Communications Company. Citadel operates three radio stations in the Bloomington market (B104, WBNQ and WJBC) and recently purchased the two stations owned by Livingston County Broadcasters, Inc. (WLDC and WJEZ).

Red provided us with information on the growth of their company and outlined Citadel's plans for extended coverage of news, weather, information and sports within the Livingston and McLean County area. Their staff, resources and expertise, combined with those of the Livingston County Broadcasters, should provide their listening audience with more options that would ultimately benefit all of us.
