Captains is no longer the name! The club is now known as the Corn Belt Leadership Club. It is for all students, not just athletes. The officers are: President: Payton Hobart, Vice President: Kristin Diller and Secretary: Emalee Slagel.

They focus on P.C. leadership and drug and alcohol awareness. They sponsor several activities.

The club has many team activities like volley ball tournaments, Bag-O with 40 teams - and they are trying to put together a dodge ball tournament. They sponsor red ribbon week in October with ribbons on cars and red wrist bands. They give out numbers and students can win prizes. They have questions to answer for prizes and dress up days.

This December they went to a leadership conference at Eureka College as part of the Cornbelt Conference. The speakers were very entertaining.

Presently they have 45 kids in the club. To become a member you have to be a sophomore - senior, file an application and be accepted.

Bits & Pieces

Fears trace a map of a society's values; we need fear to know who we are and what we do not want to be.

Marina Warner
Writer and critic

Every individual makes a difference. We cannot live through a single day without making an impact on the world around us. And we all have free choice - what sort of difference do we want to make? Do we want to make the world around us a better place? Or not?
