Cheerleading - Dance - Scholastic Bowl

Jeana Forsyth and Lauren Little

This is Jeana's 8th year at Prairie Central - 5th year at the High School. She just adopted her first child. Her husband is a guard at Pontiac Prison. She comes from LaSalle Co. Jeana is a graduate of ISU with a Masters Degree. She helps with football cheerleaders and the competition squad. They had 2 seniors, 1 junior and the rest were sophomores and freshmen on the squad. On the competition squad, they have 9 new members and 8 veterans returning.

Scholastic Bowl had 20 kids on it. They have a strong varsity squad. They will be leaving at 5:30 a.m. for a 14 hour day. They have 5 rounds in the morning. They will be competing for 15 tournaments being held at Bloomington Central Catholic. Last year they won 2/3 of their meets. Four of the football players return this week. They are classified as a "sport". They will also be competing at the Streator Rotary and also Masonic Lodge Tournaments. They play 5 team members at all times.

Lauren Little teaches Dance and Cheerleading. She has been dancing since she was 5 years old. Lauren is a graduate of I.W.U. and lives in Bloomington. This is her 2nd year at P.C.H.S. teaching English. They have had 5 performances - very interesting. None of the dancers have ever danced before or had any technique. January they will start competition. This is the first year for dance at P.C.H.S. Lauren choreographed the programs herself and teaches it to her students. They had 15 fall and 17 winter students - 25 in all. Currently they have 13 and 15.

Bits & Pieces

Many of us are afraid to follow our passions, to pursue what we want most because it means taking risks and even facing failure. But to pursue your passion with all your heart and soul is success in itself. The greatest failure is to have never really tried.
