Fairbury Night at Prairie Thunder

Josh Bartolazzi

Saturday, February 21 at 7:05 p.m. is Fairbury Night at Bloomington. Several businesses have donated prizes. There will be a "Fairbury question of the night". Dave's has donated several items. There will be table advertising and the mayor will drop the puck. The choir and band will be playing at the game and there will be plenty of fun interaction. The team is doing well with 10 points out and 30 games left. Attendance this year has been up to around 3000 with the stadium capacity at 6800 seats. The game should run from 7:05 to around 9:30 p.m. There are 6 teams in this league. They will play 76 games per year with 38 at home. April 10 is their last home game. The best place to park is at the Law & Justice Center or Pepsi at $5.00. (Check parking map on Prairie Thunder website: prairiethunderhockey.com)

Josh Clemons has 50 tickets you can buy at a discounted price of $11.00. Call Josh at Kecks if you need tickets.
