CARES CLOWNS & P.C. Leadership

Angie Kratochvil, Alan Dunahee and Andrew Quain

Children Are Really Extra Special (CARES) Clowns was formed 20 years ago. Angie has been with them the past 11 years. It is a very popular group with the students. They have 29 clowns total with about 60 trying out. Their messages are on positive choices. They perform 5 times per year with a half hour program.

The P.C. Leadership Council is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors. It is a follow up of the CARES Clowns. They promote positive activities like Mon. - red ribbon, Tues. - sweats day, Wed - bright colors, Thurs - P.C. clothing. They give away prizes. They also have tournaments like Bags and Dodge Ball. On Dec. 11 they attended the leadership conference in Eureka. They also plan student activities for after school to get students involved.

Knowledge can be communicated, but not wisdom. One can find it, live it, be fortified by it, do wonders through it, but one cannot communicate and teach it.

Hermann Hesse
