Cornbelt Leadership

Jamie McKeon, Kathy Corban, Kathryn Bahler, Zach Lawrence, Andy Hoselton, Abby Popejoy, ChelseyFinckbone, Andrew Quain and Alan Dunahee.

Alan Dunahee and Andrew Quain are sponsors for the Cornbelt Leadership group. Each rep. took his or her turn to tell us a bit about their group. Abbey Popejoy is President. She noted this group is for Soph - Seniors. You have to sign a contract to belong. They have after school programs. The Red Ribbon days have become a big event. Andy Hoselton spoke of the Red Ribbon days in Oct. Kathy Corban is Treasure and told us of the Dodge Ball Competition, Baggio Tournament and how they get the public involved with stickers from outside school. Zach Lawrence told of the Leadership Camp they had Dec. 10 at Eureka. They had 150 students learning about team building Jamie McKeon is the A.D. making posters, candy bags, etc. Kathlyn Bahler talked about mentoring at the Boys & Girls Club. Chelsey Finckbone - told how this club promoted positive leadership. They have 45 members.

C.A.R.E.S. Clowns

Kati Rudin, Anna Stoller, Mariah McCasky, DeAnn Slagel, Megan Edelman, Maddie Bounds, Patrick Shepard, Paige Novak, Catlin Rmich, Kirstin Bounds, Ivana Bell, Lydia Jeffries, Kacey Short, Kenadee Stork, Jessica Cooley, Laura Crane and Angie Kratochvil.

They have 31 6th - 8th graders. This year they participated in the P.C. Homecoming parade, had Red Ribbon Day and Dress Up days. They gave out Red Ribbon pencils and stickers. You had to have the pencil or the sticker on certain days to win a bag of candy. Their spring show will be in March, lasting 25-30 minutes. They promote "no drugs or alcohol". Wed., March 24 at Westview is their program. They performed sketches for us like the "Gross Link" & tobacco use, "Never Talk to Strangers" and "What is your Password?"
