Prairieland Designs

Amy Raber

Amy is the owner of Prairieland Designs (Interior Design, Cabinetry & Home Staging). They are located on Main Street (Locust) next to NuForm Counter. In March, she opened the cabinet part.

She has been in business for herself the past 2 1/2 years. Prior to this, she worked 14 years in Bloomington in the commercial field. She is mainly doing residential work with kitchen, bedrooms, basements, etc.

Stop by her show room at 218 W. Locust Street. Amy has a Bachelor Degree in Landscaping Design from U of I, Interior Design Master degree with a license and a minor in Art. Why hire an interior designer? They are able to look at a lot of different pieces and put them together. She can also act as a General Contractor and organize everything. Usually a room will take about 30 days. Amy and her husband and two children live north of Meadows. This is a family owned business. They also farm and you can see Amy driving the wagon through the field. Their office hours are 9:00 - 1:00 M-W-F. She uses her art background to paint murals in children's bedrooms.
